LESNEVICH & MARZANO-LESNEVICH, LLC

Lawyers Who Understand. Lawyers Who Help.

HUSBAND-AND-WIFE TEAM WALTER LESNEVICH AND Madeline Marzano-Lesnevich head a 13-attorney firm dedicated to using its substantial expertise to provide clients with the best legal assistance in dealing with all aspects of family law, medical malpractice, products liability, criminal charges, domestic violence, civil unions and grandparents' rights.

A MARRIAGE OF EXPERIENCE AND SKILL During more than 30 years as a personal injury and criminal defense attorney, Walter A. Lesnevich has concentrated his practice in the areas of professional malpractice, wrongful death, automobile accidents and injuries, medical malpractice, drug and medical device litigation, products liability, homicide, white-collar criminal defense and sexual assault. He is certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a civil trial and criminal trial attorney, something only the most skilled lawyers achieve and maintain.

Madeline Marzano-Lesnevich specializes in complex matrimonial law, divorce, high-conflict custody and parenting time issues, civil unions, grandparents' rights, domestic violence, high-income support issues, Hague Convention proceedings, international custody disputes and appeals. She has achieved the distinction of being named a fellow in the American Academy and the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, as well as being certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a matrimonial lawyer. She has written numerous professional publications, lectures nationally to lawyers and judges on family law issues and is a past chair of the NJSBA's Family Law Section. Madeline is also the current Secretary of the national organization, the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. As a mother of five, her compassion and personal insight into family dynamics enhances her ability to handle difficult cases for clients in turmoil.

Both attorneys have been named to the 2010 New Jersey Super Lawyers® list.

NAMED TO NEW JERSEY RISING STARS The firm is proud that Amanda S. Trigg has been named in New Jersey Rising Stars for the fourth year.

Trigg's practice is limited to family law, matrimonial law, divorce, child custody, child support, visitation rights, restraining orders and the field of adoption law. She is licensed to practice in New Jersey, New York and Georgia. A published author, she has achieved national honor by being named a fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, as well as being certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a matrimonial lawyer.
